Foreword

The Office of the Public Service Commission presents its new Corporate Plan, which coincides with the PASP (Public Administration Sector Plan) period of 2020/2021-2024/25.

The strategic priorities and activities presented in this Corporate plan shall contribute in the implementation of the Sector plan (PASP) and is supported by its detailed annual Management plans over the planning period, with regular monitoring in order to achieve its Mission and Vision.

Whilst striving to accomplish the planned projection, I anticipate that we will encounter challenges beyond our control that may cause delay or prevent progress of perceived outcomes. Nevertheless, we shall continue with determination and in confidence as a team to accomplish its following goals:

- Improve quality of Public Service delivery;
- Improve public Policy development;
- Strengthen Public Servants Capabilities.

I acknowledge and congratulate the efforts and commitments of those involved in the development of this new Corporate plan as well as partners and ministries for their continuous support.

But most importantly, we also extend gratitude for the leadership and guidance of the Prime Minister and Minister for the Public Service Commission, the Hon. Tuilaepa Dr Sailele Malielegaoi.

Ma le fa'aaloalo.

Workforce Plan

PSC's Strategic Workforce Plan 2020-2025 is an aspirational roadmap that directly links to the PSC Corporate Plan 2020-2025, ensuring that we have the necessary human capital to achieve its strategic goals and objectives. To achieve this our workforce guiding vision is to "have skilled and qualified people to provide high performing, innovative and professional services to our clients and stakeholders".

Our Workforce Priorities:

1. Improved Job Factors, Workgroup factors and Bullying and Harassment factors based on the Staff Engagement Survey results;
2. Improved lateral movements and promotion rates, so that at least 10% of the workforce engages in mobility
3. Improved Supervision & Leadership, Workplace & Organisational factors and Work-Life factors based on the Staff Engagement Survey results:
4. Maintain high level of executive roles held by women
5. Succession and resource planning are completed to support business continuity and achieve future workforce goals
6. Improved Agency engagement and Job Engagement and Satisfaction factors based on the Staff Engagement Survey results;
7. Positive agency and stakeholder feedback on PSC value, as evidenced by repeat business and stakeholder evaluation
8. Evidence that agencies are engaging early with PSC, as a strategic partner and advisor

Operating Environment:

In the next 5 years it is expected to be very challenging not only for the PSC but also for the Public service as whole. Given the global financial crisis caused by the COVID pandemic is expected to impact nations of the world including Samoa. Thus, would mean a significant reduction in assistance received from development partners for capacity and project related activities. Local resources will also continue to be limited and Ministries are challenged to do more with less, or work within our means.

The assessment of the labour market and workforce trends will not have a significant impact on our ability to achieve our desired workforce profile.

Factors that influence this include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ Continuing strong interest in PSC roles, with vacancies attracting high calibre candidates from all sectors ❖ Evidence of a considerable existing labour market for general workforce strategists, additionally human resource and organisational management experts, meaning there is not a 'supply' issue ❖ Evidence that we are an attractive employer to the market given the Government's progressive vision, focus on organisational design and environment of innovation ❖ Minimal evidence of business being impacted by general occupational skills shortages or competing private labour markets ❖ Low risk of business being impacted by a loss of individuals performing critical roles, due to a small number of specialist roles. 	To mitigate this Potential Risk, that we are unable to attract or retain the right people will; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ Formalise exchange arrangements with other sectors and industries ❖ Consider alternative innovative models to deliver services and 'do things differently' ❖ Recruitment processes that identify and attract people from a range of backgrounds, professions and experiences to strengthen the pipeline of talent into our more senior roles, and ensure we have the skills and capability to deliver national priorities. ❖ Expand our focus on succession planning, knowledge sharing & transfer, staff development, talent management and inclusion and diversity to mitigate the risk associated with the loss of critical people. 	Key to our Success: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ Promote good work health and working habits, and maintain a clear sense of culture, purpose and vision. ❖ Ensure the PSC has a strong employee value proposition that reinforces our brand and value. ❖ Conduct efficient and effective recruitment and induction to improve the experience for new staff upon commencement of their career to maximize and enable productive engagements, increase retention of talented people. ❖ Collaboration across the PSC and with other central agencies, to encourage unified (WOG) and ongoing community-focussed service delivery. ❖ Enable employees to develop their skills and knowledge to achieve mobility and flexibility through supportive work practices to reduce risks connected to people/roles.

Staff return to the public service/sector to share knowledge, skills, workplace culture and practices with other agencies (or sectors). ❖ Improved identification of suitable candidates through talent management. Additional expertise <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Identify, interpret and communicate data and metrics to influence business decisions and measure the impact of workforce investments on organizational priorities and business performance ➤ Anticipate and respond to external and internal business drivers by engaging in high level business analysis to formulate effective, long term workforce responses to critical business priorities ➤ Partner with the public service/sector leaders to attract, develop and retain a capable and high performing workforce which meets organizational workforce requirements and respond to future business needs ➤ Improve risk management maturity and capability by identifying and advising on opportunities and risks that potentially impact on the workforce and all parts of the organisation ➤ Foster and empower a productive and constructive organisational culture that leads change with tenacity and humility ➤ Drive strategic HR in the public service/sector by proactively seeking out new experiences and knowledge across the business disciplines and functions, with an openness for candid feedback, learning and change

Workforce Competencies for PSC as a Human Resource Professional/Specialist

As the central agency for human resource management and human resource professional development in the Public Service, the following standards of knowledge and competencies (adopted from the Singapore experience: Skills Framework for HR) holistically reflects how HR professionals would need to think and behave as they approach their HR functions in the operations of the work of the Office of the Public Service Commission. It is anticipated to incorporate the Samoa Human Resource Institute Level of Certification, once confirmed to ensure that staff acquire deeper skills and competencies in line with the different stages of the Skills Framework.

- Innovation > 75% positive
- Satisfaction with Work Life Balance > 80%

4. Maintain high level of executive roles held by women

5. Succession and resource planning are completed to support business continuity and achieve future workforce goals

- Actively support leaders in their professional development aspirations, as identified through Executive Performance Competencies and Individual Development plan and performance agreements
- Build sector-wide credibility of executives through increased exposure to the broader public service leadership group (e.g. through participation in CEO Forums, NPCC, CAC)
- Energise staff and create an environment that supports high performance, where people are empowered to perform their roles, engage with risk and innovate to achieve outcomes (regular divisional meetings)
- Commit to succession planning for key roles and talent management of high performers and high potentials
- Promote and support the development of emerging leaders, with particular emphasis on ensuring strong and ongoing representation of women in executive roles
- Model flexible, healthy ways of working and support people to work differently

Our leaders:

- ✓ Promote the Office of the PSC by demonstrating and proving our value to the service/sector
- ✓ Collaborate with the service/sector and sustain proactive partnerships and engagement
- ✓ Lead and inspire an energised, high performance culture and get the best out of people
- ✓ Create a supportive working environment, promoting worker health and wellbeing
- ✓ Commit to the professional development of themselves and their staff, including identifying and supporting emerging leaders

Activity:

- 100% of executives have current performance agreements in place

- 100% of senior executives have completed Executive Performance Competencies and Individual Development plan and consolidated professional development outcomes into performance agreements
- 100% of executives have participated in CEO-level or equivalent leadership forums
- At least 80% of executives have received invitations to lead or present at executive forums, seminars or workshops locally and overseas
- 100% of divisional meetings conducted monthly/quarterly basis depending on the size and work proximity of the division with regular Coaching and mentoring of staff.

6. Improved Agency Engagement, Job Engagement and Satisfaction factors based on the Staff Engagement Survey results;

- Agency Engagement Factors > 75% positive
- Job Engagement and Satisfaction Factors > 85% positive

7. Positive agency and stakeholder feedback on PSC value, as evidenced by repeat business and stakeholder evaluation

8. Evidence that agencies are engaging early with PSC, as a strategic partner and advisor

- Entrench our values and organisational attributes into all corporate processes, including recruitment, performance discussions and project plans
- Actively entrench PSC's central agency role at all levels, and demonstrate our value as a strategic human resource partner and advisor
- Act on feedback from the Staff Engagement Survey
- Identify opportunities to partner with the public service/sector to address strategic human resources issues, and build capacity across the service/sector
- Acknowledge and reward employees who actively contribute to building the PSC reputation and embody the values of the organisation, and celebrate our successes as an organisation
- Implement organisation-wide customer focussed practices and routines to assist with sharpening and focussing employee behaviour to our customers

As an organisation, we are:

- ✓ Strong and positive representatives for the Samoa public service, who live and breathe the public service values and principles
- ✓ Responsible for leading and connecting the public service/sector as a strategic-thinking central agency
- ✓ Focused on stewardship and helping people, as trusted advisors of the sector
- ✓ Partnering and collaborating with the public service/sector to achieve best practice and promote forward thinking
- ✓ Committed to conducting ourselves in a professional manner
- ✓ Building a strong and positive reputation for the Office of the PSC

Activities:

- Increased opportunities to acknowledge employees living the values and building PSC's reputation (e.g. through annual awards, Public Service Days & staff social activities)
- 100% of PSC work divisions have implemented customer focussed practices (e.g. Telephone/counter/email response standards as set out in the PSC Service Charter)
- 100% provision of proper healthy and hygienic working conditions, cohesive environment to boost staff motivation and morale

Implementation and review:

- ❖ Implementation of the workforce strategies is the responsibility of the Executive Management team, and will be a standing item at Management meetings to ensure attention is maintained on strategic workforce issues.
- ❖ The workforce strategies are to be reviewed on an annual basis, in line with the strategic planning cycle, and revised to take into consideration changing priorities, achieved goals etc.
